

& COSTCO

- Design elements:

- A sound dampening barrier wall will be constructed with precast concrete sound wall panels as typically seen along highways. This barrier will reduce noise between the shopping center and the residents
- The Costco building will be primarily comprised of structural brick and split face CMU (Concrete Masonry Unit) delivering a higher quality aesthetic as opposed to standard metal frame construction